

Mrs. O. Grow Speaks At 'Y' Anniversary Meeting

"Urgent need exists today to strengthen spiritual life, and to advance the Christian ideals of personal and social living so vital if good will, justice, and freedom are to rule," stated Mrs. O. R. C. Grow Centennial chairman in opening the initial meeting of the committee at the San Pedro YWCA.

"Toward these ends women constitute a great potential force," Mrs. Grow continued. "The YWCA has demonstrated unique capacity for bringing that force to bear effectively in community, national and international life."

The committee's job for the next two years was outlined. In celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the YWCA $5,000, 000 will be raised throughout the country to be used to restore and strengthen the National Board services to local Associations.

Those attending the meeting were: Mesdames Grow, Alvin Hawkins, Louis Ladra, Roger Scott, Clarence Halfpenny, Harold Larmer, Caroline Steinhorn, George Bronaugh, Floyd Latham, Otis Blackstone, Alonzo Hurley, Charlotte Lukes, Mary Michel, Alfred Jorgensen, William Herrman, and Elsa Morris, and Marion Fatout.
